ACerS PCSA
1st Annual Lab Blooper Competition

Submission Form

We are excited to consider your submission to the 1st Annual ACerS PCSA Lab Blooper Competition!

Please submit the completed form, signed Personal Injury Disclaimer, and one (1) illustration of your blooper to pcsabloopers@ceramics.org by July 15, 2020. The illustration of the blooper may be a picture or a digital recreation/rendering of the blooper. The illustration may be a collage showing multiple views or perspectives of the blooper, although only one image file may be submitted.

First and Last Name (print) _____

Institution _____

Email Address _____

Title of Blooper _____

Blooper Summary (500 words or less)

Please include in the summary: 1. The unforeseen circumstances which caused the blooper. 2. The aftermath of the blooper, and 3. The steps taken to avoid future reoccurrence of such an accident.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Personal Injury Disclaimer

I hereby represent that: The accident described in my submission to ACerS PCSA Lab Blooper Competition 2020 did not entail injury to any person. No reference is made in my submission to any instance of physical harm to any person. Additionally, if evidence arises invalidating these representations, I understand that my submission will be voided.

My signature below constitutes my pledge of compliance with the Personal Injury Disclaimer and grants The American Ceramic Society permission to use the image submitted in all media of expression now known or later developed and in all foreign language translations and other derivative works published or prepared by The American Ceramic Society or its licensees, for distribution throughout the world, and also in versions made by nonprofit organizations for use by blind or physically handicapped persons.

Signed: _____

Date: _____

Once the application has been submitted, you will receive a confirmation email from Michael Walden, waldenmichael@mines.edu.