1	Bulletin Archive Online, Permanent License The Bulletin Archive Online is an online digitized searchable archive of the American Ceramic Society Bulletin, its membership publication. It contains Society and industry news, technical articles, business briefs and more dating back nearly a century. As a living archive, it will be updated on an annual basis to include the previous year's issues. Current year issues are available by separate subscription. The permanent license allows users to search and download individual articles and complete issues as they exist today and into the future as the archive is updated.	1	$9,900.00	--	$9,900.00
2	Maintenance Fees, Yearly As a licensee directly purchasing from ACerS in 2020, you will receive a permanent license free of maintenance fees		$480.00	100%	0.00
